*A Meralomas victory over Burnaby was protested to the league by Burnaby officials for a miss call by the game officials. There was a delay of game penalty against the Mountaineers on the final play of the game. The officials asked the Meralomas if they wanted to decline the penalty, which they did. The officials then ruled the game over. Burnaby protested that the game can't end on a penalty. The league upheld the protest and no points were awarded to the Lomas. The game was ordered to be replayed only if it had a bearing on the play-offs. The game was not replayed.

*The B.C. Final had to be replayed when the game officials called the game and walked off the field. With 12:00 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, the officials were threatened with violence following a penalty calls. The head game official fearing that the game was out of control called the game. At that point the Meralomas were leading 30-4. League officials at an emergency meeting ruled that the game would have to be replayed in its entirety the following week. This extra lay-off as some newspaper reports cost the Raiders the championship

*The first match between the Richmond Raiders and the Okanagan Sun was forfeited to the Sun when Raiders were unable to make the tip to Kelowna for the match, Raiders officials said they didn't have enough healthy players for the game. Score was recorded as a 1-0 Sun win. Due to a player shortage in the second game Raiders forfeit, were allowed to use over age players and the Sun won 42-0.
